In March 1955 there were numerous Soviet motor convoys in Gdynia. Each convoy was made up of about 50 exceptionally large tank trucks that transported fuel every night to underground depots located along the seashore between Gdansk and Gdynia. Each convoy had an escort of Soviet soldiers. Other underground fuel depots are located at Kamienna Gora (N54-31, E18-33) and at Orlowo (Orloff - N54-13, E19-05).
